Re: Gottesfeld v. Hurwitz, 18 Civ. 10836 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

I hope this letter finds you well. As the Managing Editor of FreeMartyG, I'd like to file a letter in support of Martin Gottesfeld's motion for a Temporary Restraining Order Protecting Plaintiff's Right To Publish (D.E. 68), including supplementary D.E.s 69, 79, 80, and 84. As managing editor, I would like to run his articles. Towards the ends of robust and accurate journalism, we would need his collaboration for fact checking and editing purposes. Not being able to speak to him for these purposes is having a demonstrably negative effect on our outlet, as Mr. Gottesfeld is the featured journalist people visit our site to read. Those negative effects of not being able to publish Mr. Gottesfeld's journalism include loss of readership and depressed website and SEO ranking.

I am also including a letter from Kelen McBreen, editor and reporter for Infowars. Infowars is ranked as the 781st most trafficked website in America and number 3,219 globally, attracting international readership from Canada, Australia, etc. Mr. McBreen shares similar concerns about lack of access to long time contributor Mr. Gottesfeld, as well as his willingness to publish Mr. Gottesfeld's articles should he be allowed to resume participating in the journalism process.

Sincerely,

DANA GOTTESFELD
Managing Editor of FreeMartyG
Spouse of the plaintiff
